1. Introduction

The Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI") notified the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading Regulations) 2015 ("Regulations") on January 15, 2015 replacing the two-decade old insider trading norms in India. A need was felt to systematically review and provide a more robust and efficient mechanism in line with the global norms and standards to curb insider trading in India. Thus, the new Regulations are formulated in order to put in place a framework for prohibition of insider trading in securities and to strengthen the legal framework.

These regulations called the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Regulations') shall come into force from 14 May 2015.

Regulation 9(1) of the Regulations requires the Board of Directors of every listed company to formulate a code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by its employees and other connected persons towards achieving compliance with these regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B to the Regulations, without diluting the provisions of these Regulations in any manner.

In compliance with the above requirements, the Board of Directors of the Company formulated a code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by Insiders in substitution to the existing code of conduct for prevention of Insider Trading.

2. Objective

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

Every Promoter, Director, Officer, Designated Person, Insider and Connected person of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such information obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No Director, Officer, Designated Person may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party. Such persons are prohibited from communicating / or counseling others with respect to the securities of the Company. Such persons should also refrain from profiteering by misusing the unpublished price sensitive information and thereby enabling the Company to retain investor confidence.

To achieve these objectives, Covidh Technologies Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") hereby notifies that this code of conduct is to be followed by all Directors, Officers, Designated Person, connected persons and Promoters and persons belonging to the Promoter Group.

4. Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for:

- a. monitoring adherence to the rules for preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information";
- b. issuing notifications for any modifications in the policies, procedures and rules;
- c. pre-clearing trades of Designated Persons;
- d. monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors of the Company;
- e. Maintaining records of all the declaration(s) submitted by Insiders.
- f. Addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct.

5. Prohibition on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

Insider shall not provide or allow access to any person and any person shall not procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.

However, the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Following practices should be followed in this regard.

Need to know

All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Limited Access To Confidential Information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted / destroyed after its use. Paper Shredder should be used for the destruction of physical files.

6. Prohibition of Trading when in possession of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

Insider shall not trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Insider shall also not trade in securities of the Company except when the Trading Window is open and is not in the possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The restrictions stated above shall not apply to:

(a) a transaction that is an off-market inter-se transfer between Promoters who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of these Rules and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision; and

(b) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

(i) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(ii) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(c) Trades pursuant to a Trading Plan set up in accordance with these Rules.

7. Trading Restrictions

Trading plan is to enable the Insider to plan for trades to be executed in future in a compliant manner, subject to the following conditions:

Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for not less than 12 (Twelve) months for trading in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading Plan shall:

- (i) Be commenced after statutory cool off period of six months from the public disclosure of the plan and after obtaining clearance from the compliance officer;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. In such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to trade in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8. Trading Window

Trading Window means the trading period which is open or available for trading in the Company's Securities. Designated Persons may trade in the Company's Securities after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with these Rules.

All Designated Persons shall conduct all their trading in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not trade in the Company's securities during the period when the trading window is closed, as referred below or during any other period as may be specified by the Company/ Compliance Officer from time to time.

The trading window shall be closed:

- (i) The period beginning with 7 days prior to the date of Board Meeting where the Board of Directors are to consider the announcement of financial results /statements (audited or unaudited) for the quarter or half year or the financial year as the case may be and the announcement of all sensitive matters which are and are deemed to be 'unpublished price sensitive information'
- (ii) When the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information, for such periods as determined by the Compliance Officer.

The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the company.

The trading window shall re-open after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes generally available.

9. Pre-clearance of transactions

Designated persons and Insiders of the Company who intend to trade in the securities of the company in excess of 5,000 shares or value of which exceeds Rs 5,00,000/-, whichever is lower, in one transaction or a series of transactions over a calendar quarter, shall apply in the prescribed form as provided in Annexure 1 to the Compliance Officer for pre-clearance together with necessary undertakings along with a statement of holdings at the time of preclearance as prescribed in Annexure 2, provided the Designated Person or the Insider is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information while executing the Trade.

No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance and the Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by Designated Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such Designated Person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even though the trading window is open.

An undertaking as provided in Annexure 3 shall be executed in favor of the Company by such designated persons and shall be submitted along with Application for pre-clearance of Trade.

The Compliance Officer may, after being satisfied that the application and undertaking/s submitted by the Designated Person are true and accurate, approve or reject the application within two working days of the receipt of application for pre-clearance as prescribed in Annexure 4.

The Designated person shall execute the trades for which pre-clearance has been obtained within 7 trading days following the date of approval. The details of the transaction shall be communicated forthwith to the compliance officer in Annexure 5. In case, the person is unable to execute the order within 7 trading days following the date of approval, a fresh application for pre-clearance (as mentioned above) shall be made.

All Designated persons who were permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the company at any time.

In case a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

A Designated Person who trades in securities without complying with the preclearance procedure as envisaged in these Rules or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the pre-clearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in these Rules.

10. Disclosures of Trading required to be furnished by Insiders

Every public disclosure by the Insider shall be made in such form as may be specified or notified by SEBI from time to time.

The disclosures to be made by any person shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a minimum period of five years.

Initial Disclosures:

- a) Every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of the company shall within thirty days of these regulations taking effect (i.e., 14 May 2015) disclose to the company the details of holdings of securities of the company, including that of their immediate relatives as on the date of these regulations taking effect (i.e., 14 May 2015) in Form A: Annexure 6;
- b) Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter shall disclose his/her holdings of securities of the company, including that of their immediate relatives as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter in Form B: Annexure 7.

Continual Disclosures:

- (a) Every promoter, employee and director of the company shall disclose to the company on a continuing basis in Form C: Annexure 8, the total number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, of him/her and his/her immediate relatives, from the last disclosure made, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs 10,00,000/-.

The disclosure shall be made within two working days of:

- a. The receipt of intimation of allotment of shares, or
 - b. The acquisition or sale of shares or voting rights, as the case may be.
- (b) The Compliance Officer shall within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information shall disclose the particulars of such trading to the stock exchanges.

Disclosures by other connected persons:

The Company may, at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the company in such form as prescribed in Form D: Annexure 9 and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with these regulations.

11. Penalty/Punishment For Contravention of Code

An Insider who acts in contravention of these Rules shall be liable to have his services or relationship with the Company, as the case may be, terminated.

Any director, officer, designated person and all connected persons of the company who trades in securities of the company or communicates any information enabling the trading in securities of the company, in violation/contravention of this code shall be held guilty and penalized and appropriate action shall be taken by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, withholding of promotion, termination of the employment/contract, or such other action as the Company may in this regard deem fit.

The penal action taken by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the Insider Trading Regulations.

12. Intimation To SEBI

In case the Compliance Officer and / or the company observe that there has been violation of these Regulations, the Compliance Officer shall inform SEBI of such violations for appropriate action. SEBI can initiate necessary proceedings for violation of any of these Regulations.

13. Clarifications / Enquiries

The Compliance Officer may be contacted for all queries and as to the interpretation and application of this Code.

14. Miscellaneous

The Board of Directors shall be empowered to amend, modify, interpret these Rules and such Rules shall be effective from such date that the Board may notify in this behalf.
